GOVERNANCE

Index governance

Nasdaq Indexes follow the same governance structure. For a detailed list of this information, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Nasdaq Index Management Committee

A methodology document is created for all new Index Methodologies. The methodology document includes the following: Index Objective, Security Eligibility Criteria, Index Construction, Index Maintenance, Index Governance, Index Policy, and Index Dissemination.

The Nasdaq Index Management Committee approves all new Index Methodologies. This committee is comprised of full-time professional members of Nasdaq. The committee meets regularly, and reviews items including, but not limited to, pending corporate actions that may affect Index constituents, statistics comparing the composition of the indexes to the market, companies that are being considered as candidates for addition to an Index, and any significant market events.

For a detailed overview of the Index Management Committee, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Internal reviews of methodology

For a detailed description on internal reviews of the Methodology, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Communication with stakeholders and consultations

For a detailed description on Consultations and Communications with Stakeholders, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Index cessation

Nasdaq has a documented procedure that is followed for Index Cessation that includes termination/retirement of an Index or Index Family.

For more information, please refer to the Nasdaq Index Cessation Policy.

Discretionary adjustment

This Index Methodology was created by Nasdaq to achieve the aforementioned objective of measuring the underlying purpose of each Index governed by this methodology document. Any deviations from this methodology are made in the sole judgment and discretion of Nasdaq so that the Index continues to achieve its objective.
