

NASDAQ-100 EQUAL WEIGHTED INDEX

NDXE

INDEX DESCRIPTION

The Nasdaq-100 Equal Weighted Index is the equal-weighted version of the Nasdaq-100 Index (NDX), which is designed to measure the performance of 100 of the largest Nasdaq-listed non-financial companies.

SECURITY ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The Index contains the same securities as the Nasdaq-100 Index. See the methodology for that index for further information.

INDEX CALENDAR

Reconstitution schedule

See the Nasdaq-100 Index methodology.

Rebalance schedule

The Index is rebalanced quarterly in March, June, September and December.

Rebalance reference dates

The Index Rebalance uses the Last Sale Prices as of the close of trading on the third Friday in March, June, September and December.

CONSTITUENT SELECTION

Constituent selection process

All securities that meet the applicable Security Eligibility Criteria are included in the Index.

CONSTITUENT WEIGHTING

Constituent weighting scheme

The Index is an equal-weighted index.

Constituent weighting process

The Index is rebalanced quarterly such that all issuers within the Index are assigned an equal Index market value. For issuers represented by multiple securities, those issuers' Index market values are equally apportioned across their respective Index Securities.

Index Shares are calculated by dividing each Index Security's resulting Index market value by its Last Sale Price.

For additional information about index weighting, see Nasdaq Standard Index Weight Adjustment Guidelines.

INDEX MAINTENANCE

Deletion policy

If a component of the Nasdaq-100 Equal Weighted Index is removed from the Nasdaq-100 for any reason, it is also removed from the Nasdaq-100 Equal Weighted Index at the same time.

Replacement policy

See the Nasdaq-100 Index methodology.

Corporate actions

In the interim periods between scheduled index reconstitution and rebalance events, individual Index securities may be the subject to a variety of corporate actions and events that require maintenance and adjustments to the Index. With the exception(s) noted below, specific treatment of each type of corporate action or event is described in the Nasdaq Corporate Actions and Events Manual – Equities, which is incorporated herein by reference.

In certain cases, corporate actions and events are handled according to the weighting scheme or other index construction techniques employed. Wherever alternate methods are described, the Index will follow the “Non-Market Cap Corporate Action Method.”

Corporate action exceptions

Spin-offs

- If the parent is an Index Security and there is a when-issued market for the spinco, the price of the parent is adjusted downward for the value of the spinco. The value of the spinco is calculated as the spin-off ratio multiplied by the when-issued Last Sale Price (“LSP”) of the spinco. There is no adjustment to the Index Shares of the parent. This will result in a divisor adjustment. The spinco is not added to the Index.
- If there is no when-issued market for the spinco, then no price or Index Share adjustment is made to the Index Security. The spinco is not added to the Index.

Index share adjustments

Other than as a direct result of corporate actions, the index does not normally experience share adjustments between scheduled index rebalance and reconstitution events.

FTP and dissemination service

Index values and weightings are available via FTP on the Nasdaq Global Indexes FlexFile Delivery Service (GIFFD). Index values are available via Nasdaq's Global Index Dissemination Services (GIDS).

GOVERNANCE

Index governance

All Nasdaq Indexes follow the same governance structure. For a detailed list of this information, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Nasdaq Index Management Committee

The Nasdaq Index Management Committee approves all new Index Methodologies. This committee is comprised of full-time professional members of Nasdaq. The committee meets regularly, and reviews items including, but not limited to, pending corporate actions that may affect Index constituents, statistics comparing the composition of the indexes to the market, companies that are being considered as candidates for addition to an Index, and any significant market events.

For a detailed overview of the Index Management Committee, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Internal reviews of methodology

For a detailed description on internal reviews of the Methodology, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Communication with stakeholders and consultations

For a detailed description on Consultations and Communications with Stakeholders, please see the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.

Index cessation

Nasdaq has a documented procedure that is followed for Index Cessation that includes termination/retirement of an Index or Index Family.

For more information, please refer to the Nasdaq Index Cessation Policy.

Discretionary adjustment

This Index Methodology was created by Nasdaq to achieve the aforementioned objective of measuring the underlying purpose of each Index governed by this methodology document. Any deviations from this methodology are made in the sole judgment and discretion of Nasdaq so that the Index continues to achieve its objective.

For more information on potential adjustments including Calculation and Pricing Disruptions, Expert Judgment, and Unexpected Reconstitution/Rebalances, please refer to the Nasdaq Index Methodology Guide.
